My dear Annie & Edwin.
And Louis & Jack &
Henry Omean.
It seems a long time since Grandma left you all - & the Misses you very much, she hopes you will like the sweets she bought for you in Liverpool, Uncle Ned put them in his bag & will give them to you & you can have some

every day after dinner Grandpa, & Grandma &
Auntie Lucy, & Auntie Emilie are on ~~at~~ a big steamer, & they all eat a very good dinner & feel very comfortable for the sea was very smooth & quick, & the vessel was very quick & steady, but a few moments ago - she began to roll a little & Auntie Emily ran & threw her self on her bed, & then she is now, & Grandma

gave her some grapes
to eat, & very kind gentleman, called Mr Pekin, gave Grandma
a basket of beautiful grapes & pears, & some lovely flowers, she wishes she could give you all some of them -

Grandma cannot write any more, but wonders you all her love & hopes you will think of her very often for she loves you very Much - [redacted] must some time write some nice letters to -

Dear Grandma
she is too tired to write any more & mine -
