Capt P. M. Stevens RHA
Abbassia hosp.
May. 14. CAIRO

My darling!

A few more to that all the eggs will not be in one basket

Love

Peter.

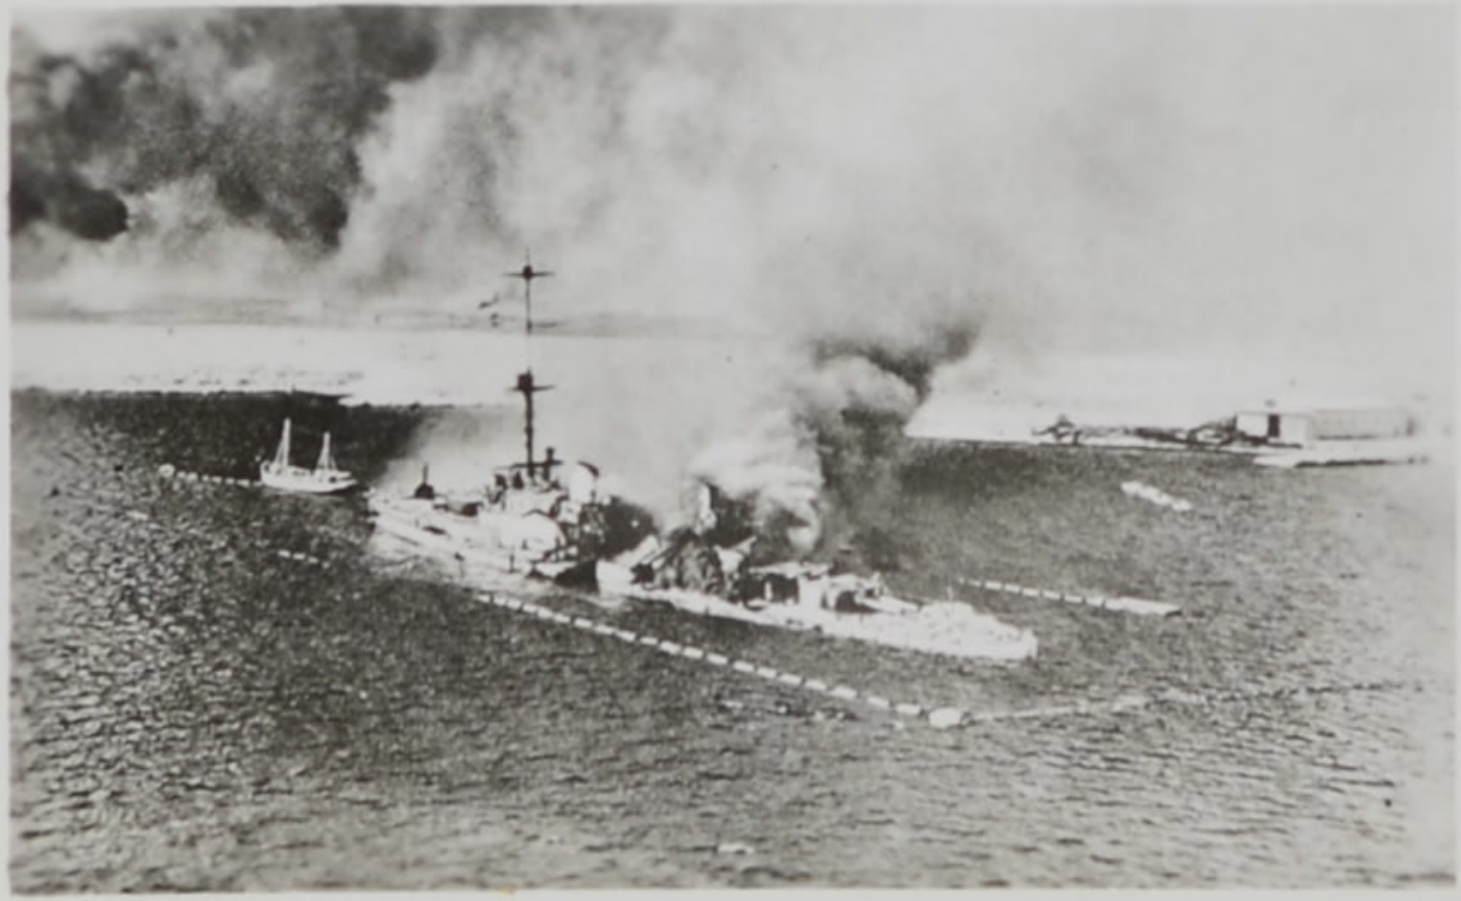

This is not actually
a Gun but it's a German
S.P Gun. 15cm
I saw it after El Alamein.

German Tank
captured at Tobruk

How well
I remember pacing under here in the great advance
~~Marble Arch~~

Marble Arch

The Italian cruiser 885

"San Giorgio." burning

in Tobruk Harbour.

I saw this wreck
when I last visited it!

I went into the 8/2
Church 2 hours after
we occupied Tobruk.
It was one very long.

Tobruk Church

Abbasia
Cairo.
May. 14.

My darlings

I bought these photographs in Alexandria they are of real interest (as I was actually there) to me will be also to you and for my collection I start my course tomorrow gosh! I did have a happy time in Alexandria a heaven

love

Edwin

886

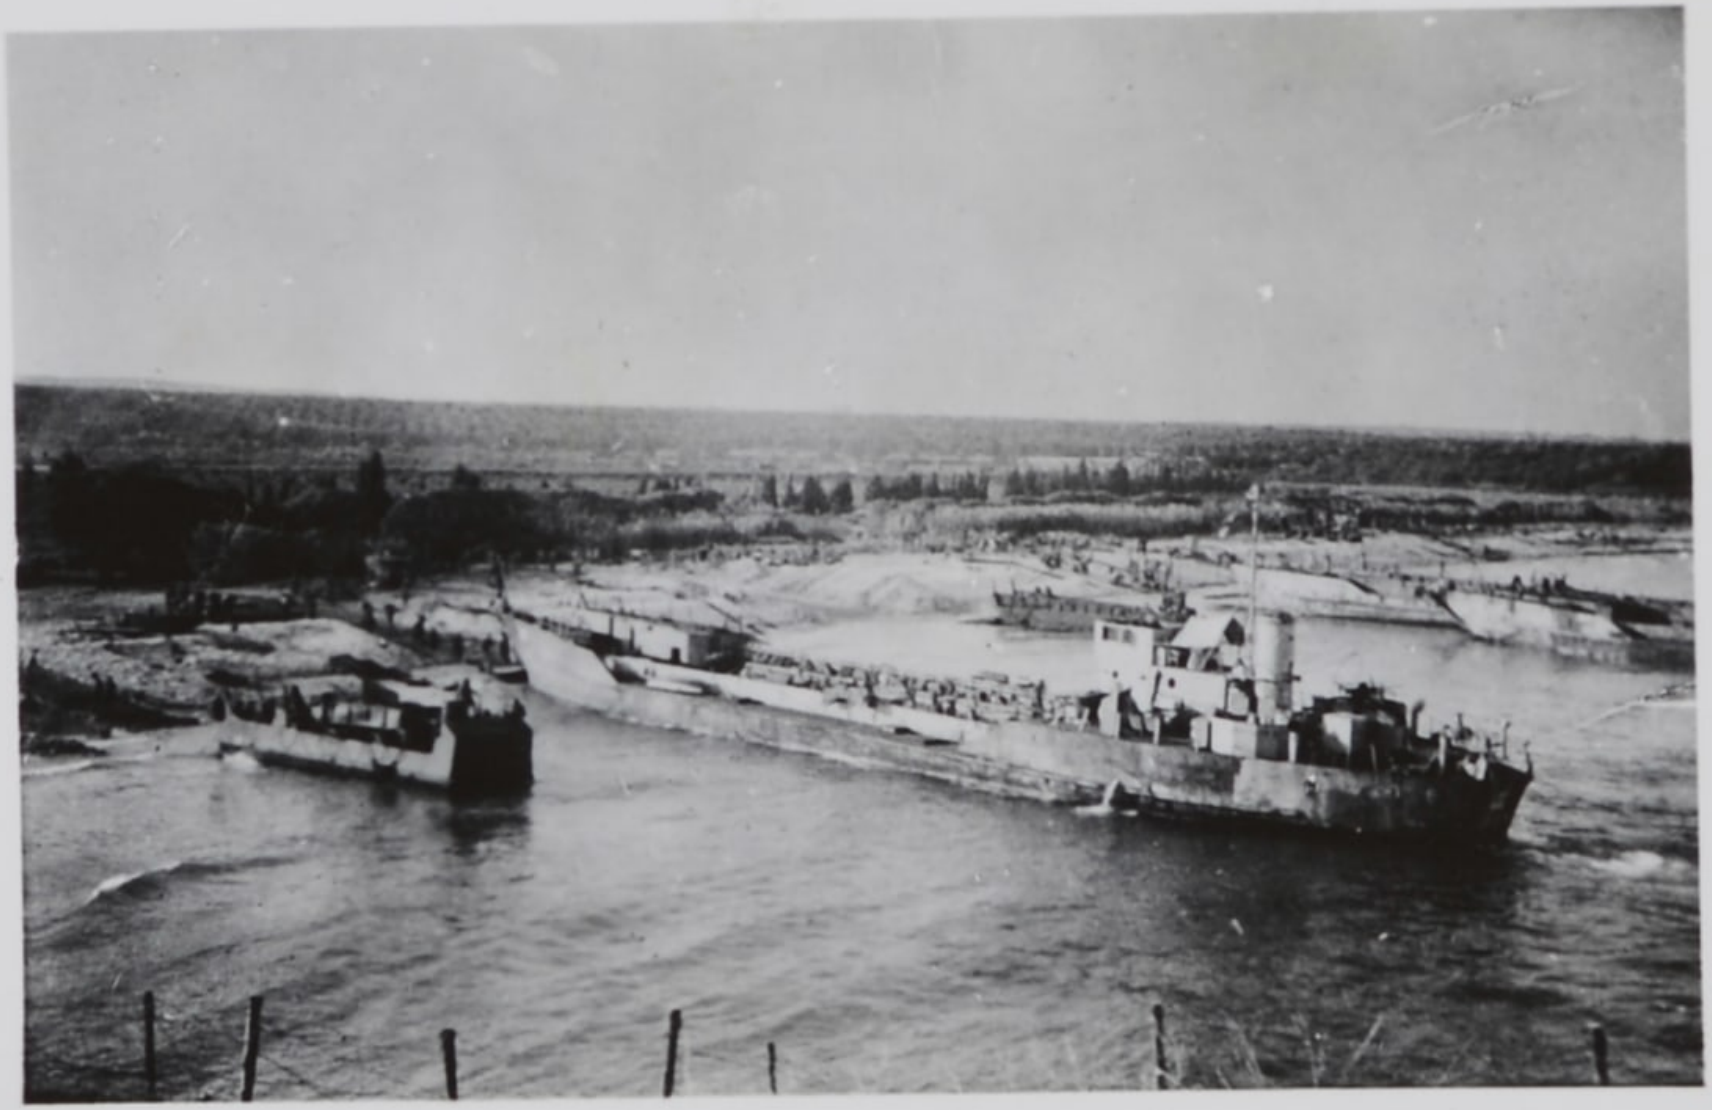

Sollum

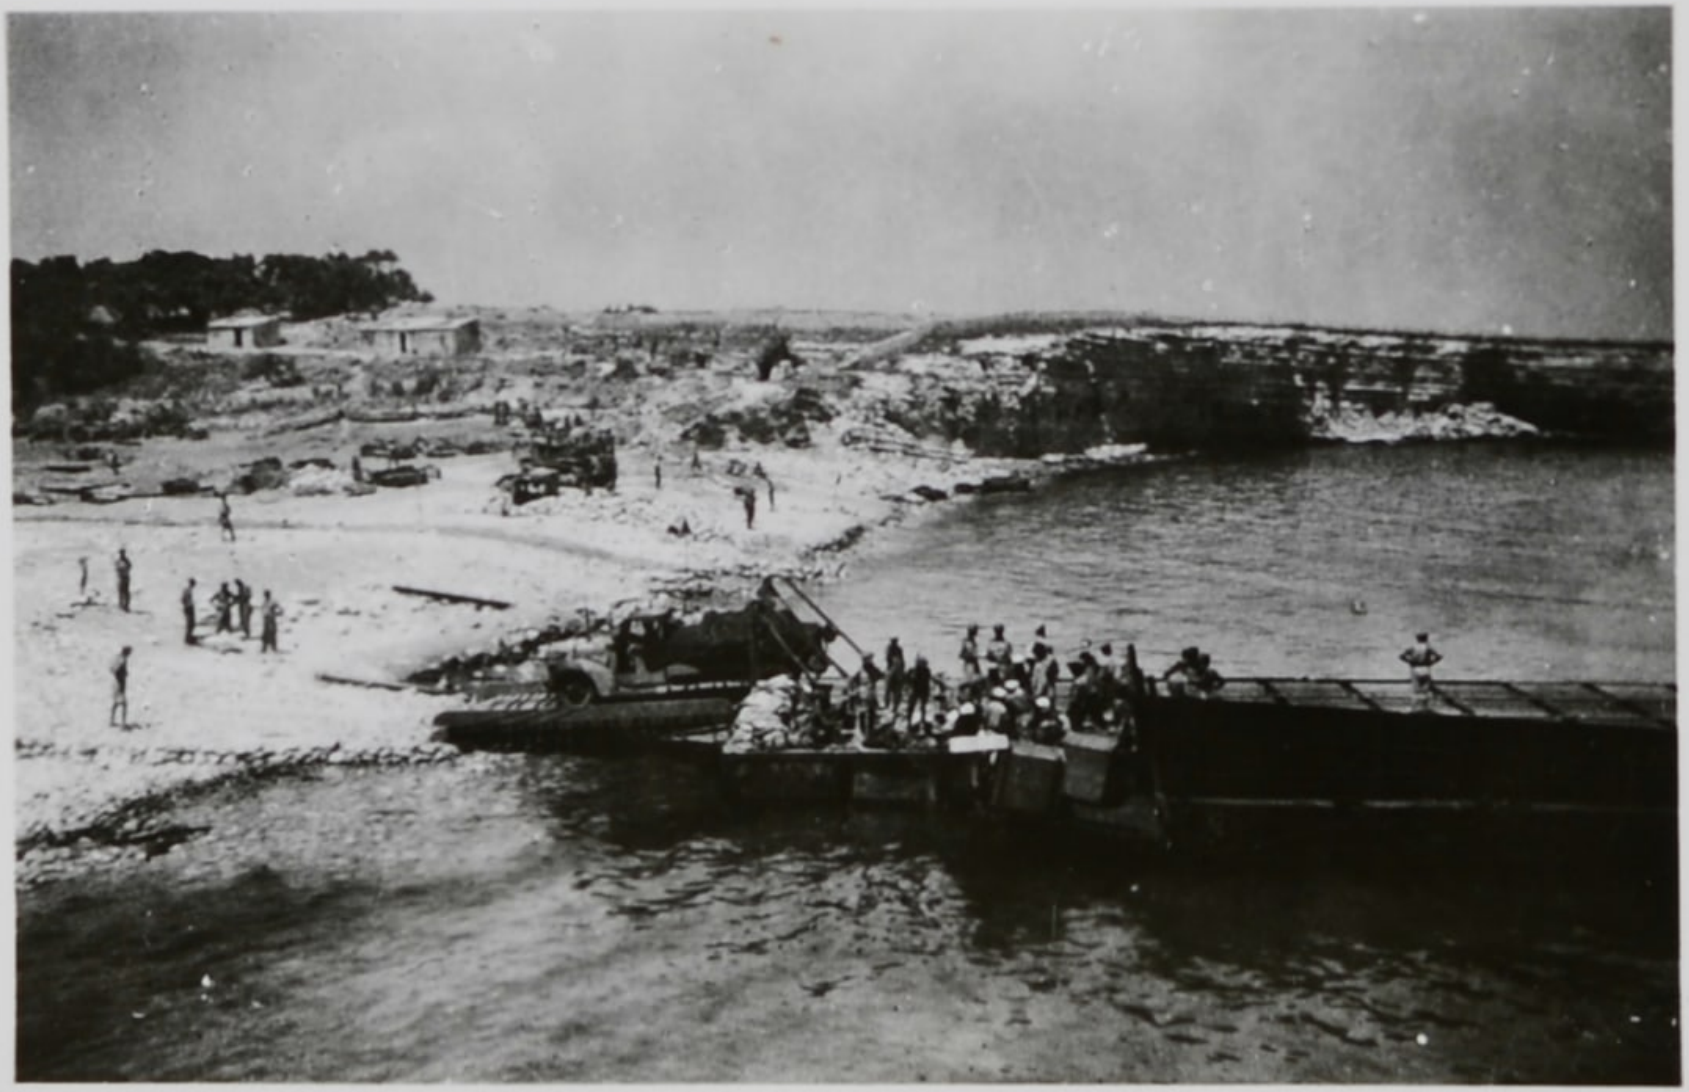

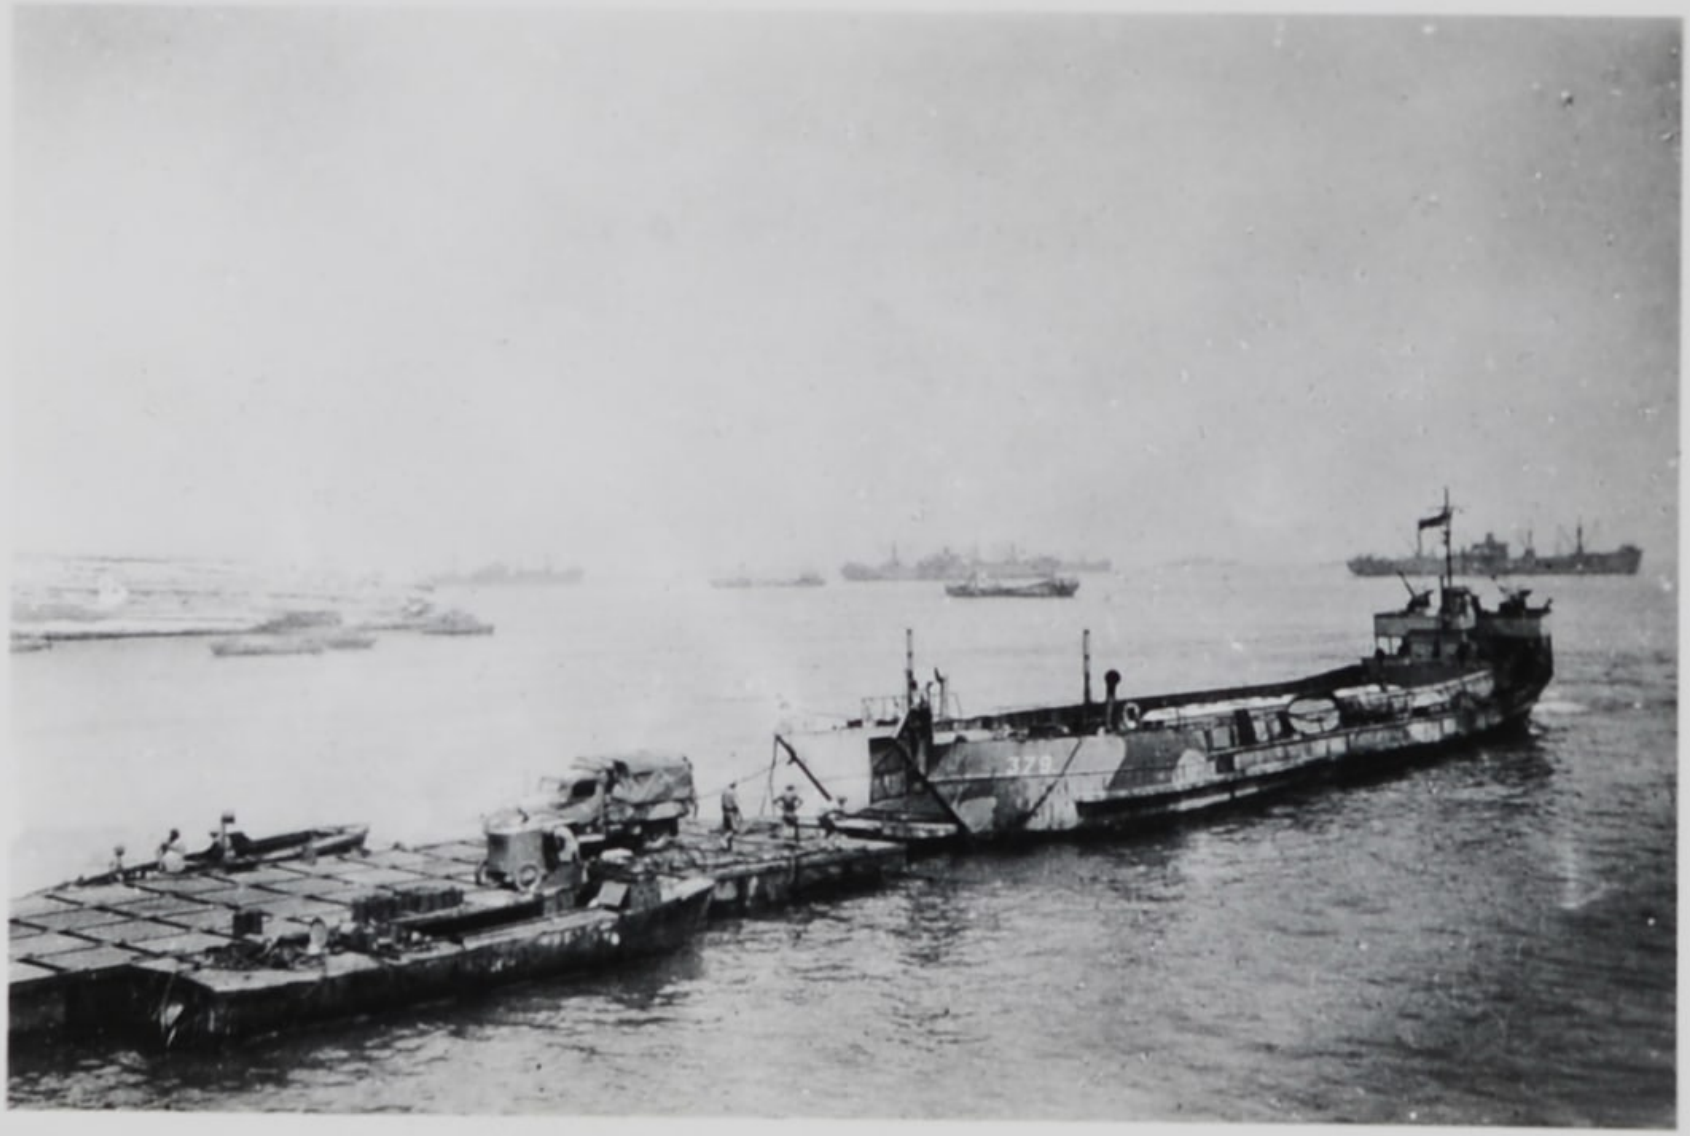

407
81-14

Capt. Challenor RHA
CARO. Mary. 21

My darling!

All these were taken whilst I was ADC to the General with his own camera, and he gave them to me when I left

Love

Edwin

Please add to Collection

Part of the garden where I was billeted with the General.

A donkey race held by some of the cavalary

—

A sports meeting held
by an armd. regt

—.

1. The General
2. Richard O'Brien has led AOE
3. Nisha

The General again

What a grand scout!

The Generals niece

She got engaged to

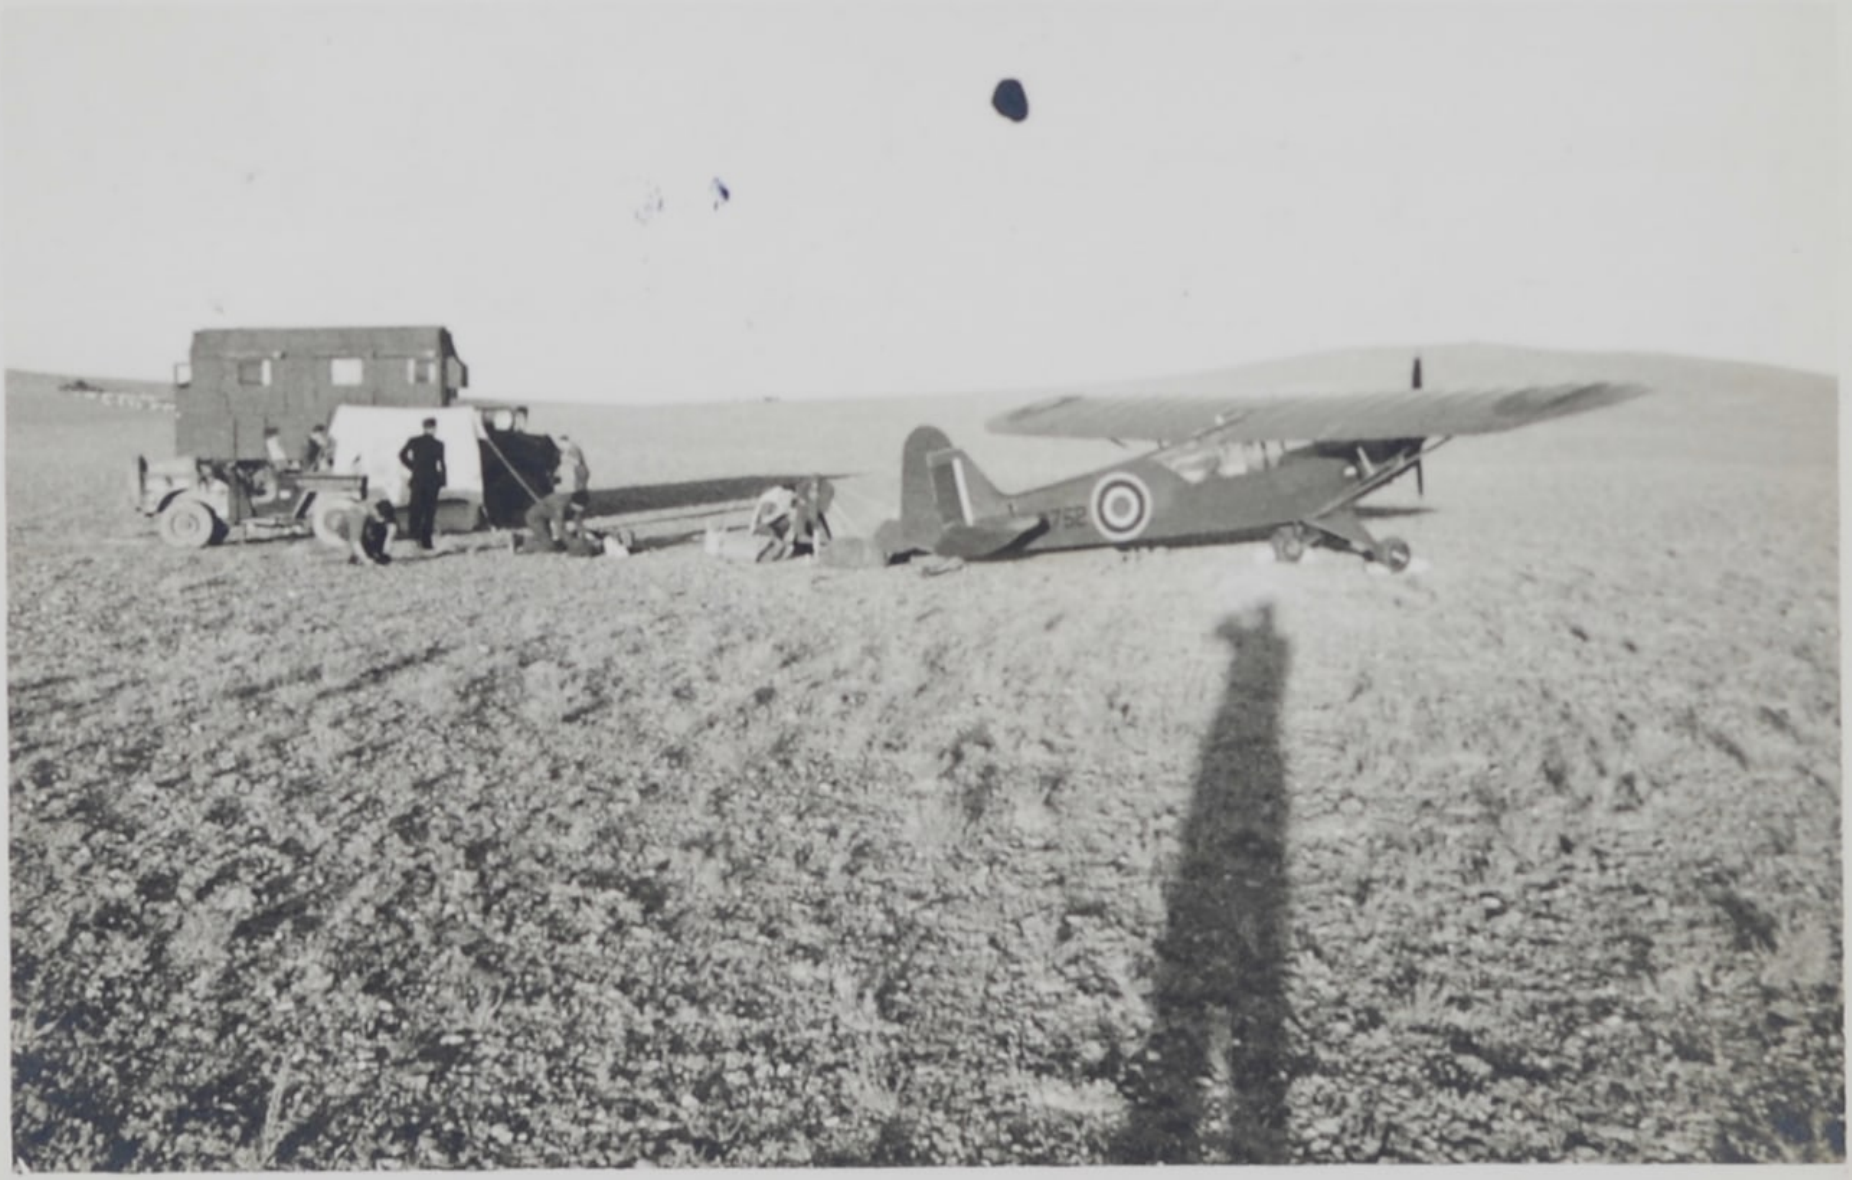

an old flame the week

I left for CAIRO

—

my boss the General
a most sacrificing personality
a person I shall never forget and would do anything for

Lord Gort inspecting my old Battery, with Dudley-Smith my B.C. standing directly behind him.

Lord Gort talking to the RSM.
behind him the
C-O. Adj and 2/C

———.

The Regt drawn up in hollow square at Rotes billets

You can just see me standing alone near the tanks marked with 'X'